NOV 3 1957

203,99dproved For Release 2001/08/20 : CIA-RDP75-00001R00 Circ.: m.

310,595

FOIAb3b

Date:

SUNDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1957-

WASHINGTON RIPPLES

Curb Of Press Creeps UpAgain

By BEN COLE Sputnik Warning

The Star's Washington Bureau miffed at having been wrong by three days.

ported that a few hours beore Sputnik began to orbit resident Eisenhower was warned by Central Intelligence Agency that Russia might aunch an earth satellite "at iny time."

According to the report, the rediction was made Oct. 4 closed meeting of the President lent's committee of scientist nd engineers. Dr. Herbert coville Jr. of the CIA was dentified as the man who ave the warning.

However, newspaper columnist where S. Allen reported five 7 an earth satellite would be circling earth by the first of October." Allen dded that it might be a Soet moonlet.

when news of the Sputnik!

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT